

Richard P. Villarico, CPA

Angeles City, Pampanga

Email: richard.villari1002@gmail.com

Mobile: +63 9178088088

Solid experience in managing all facets of Accounting and Finance gained from various multinational companies with diverse work culture. Experience in managing other support function of the business i.e. Admin, Human Resource and Information Technology. Have been responsible for risk management and regulatory compliance. Advocate of continuous improvement in all aspect of operations including Finance.

Work Experience

Head of Finance – May 2006 to March 2023

Moog Controls Corporation (Aerospace Parts Manufacturer-1,000+ employees)

Baguio City

Responsibilities

- Overall responsibility for the finance function to include financial Accounting, Treasury management, Taxation, Financial and SOX audits, Budgeting and forecasting and regulatory compliance.
- Daily and weekly operation report analysis for discussion with the local management team which usually includes a comparison of daily and weekly KPIs on productivity and cost.
- Monthly and quarterly business and financial review with global operations and finance management team
- Overall in-charge of the budgeting and forecasting process in coordination all departments and business unit managers
- Handles tax investigation in coordination with our tax lawyers
- Member of the company risk management team
- Formulate company wide financial policies in accordance with the global guidance.
- Maintain relationship with banks, auditors and regulatory agencies
- Ensure compliance with tax. SEC, BSP, PEZA and DENR regulations
- Supervises staff who handles global trade compliance issues
- Represent the company in trade associations and government agencies

Assistant Division Head for Finance and Administration (2001 to 2006)

Jedico Manufacturing Phils. Inc. (Automotive Parts Manufacturer-2,000 employees)

Responsibilities

- Oversee operations of the Finance, Human Resource, Information Technology and Administration Departments.
- Formulate target/KPIs for the Department Managers
- Ensure compliance with all government regulations particularly taxation, PEZA rules and regulations and SEC requirements
- Review and enhance processes to improve operation efficiency in all the departments
- Review global financial reporting package and budget/forecast reports prepared by the Finance Manager
- Review and continuously improve human resource policies.
- Formulate overall IT policies related to infrastructure and software development
- Member of the Management Committee (Mancom) that reviews and manages the day to day operation of the company.

Cost Accounting Manager (1988 to 2001)

Nissan Motor Philippines, Inc. (Car manufacturer)

Responsibilities

- Primarily responsible for Operation Accounting for the company
- Monitor cost target vs. actual and prepare the corresponding analytical report
- Review Car Assembly Cost reports prepared by the team
- Review inventory levels vs target and report to the Senior Management
- In coordination with Marketing, review profitability level for each car model
- Prepare specs value analysis for each new model that is about to be introduce to the market
- Manages payment of excise taxes for every unit sold/produce.
- Prepare target product cost as input to budgets and forecast
- Project Manager for the whole IT infrastructure during the construction of Sta Rosa Plant

SKILLS

- Proven leadership and managerial skills for more 20 years
- Expertise in all areas of accounting and finance
- Critical Thinker
- Process oriented
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Project Management
- Knowledge in taxation
- Continuous improvement mindset
- Risk Management

Education, Trainings and Certifications

- a. Bachelor in Accountancy – Polytechnic University of the Phils. Manila – 1984
- b. Passed the CPA licensure examination in 1985 with above average rating
- c. Finished Level 1 Certified Management Accountant course in 2018 conducted by Philippine Association of Management Accountant.
- d. Continuous training in taxation, Accounting Principles and various government regulations