PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Teodoro is a purpose-driven and results-oriented accounting professional with extensive experience in both the public and private sectors, specializing in taxation and financial accounting.

As a tax professional in public practice, he provided tax consultancy services to local and multinational companies across industries, including Energy, Technology, Agriculture, Manufacturing, and Oil & Gas. His expertise includes advising on Philippine tax implications of cross-border transactions, tax treaty applications, tax structuring and planning for inbound investments, and assessing fiscal and non-fiscal incentives offered by Investment Promotion Agencies such as PEZA and BOI. He also has significant experience in income tax calculation reviews and assisting with tax assessments and audits.

Currently, he serves as a Finance and Tax Leader at a private engineering company, where he oversees financial accounting and reporting compliance at both local and international levels. He leads the Company's tax filings, reporting, and engagements with the tax bureau while also preparing internal financial reports to support top management in strategic decision-making.
